HEADLINE: Dan Provost is parked in Los Angeles

January 9, 2012:

Dan Provost, CAPP joins Walker Parking Consultants as a consultant in our Los Angeles office. Having entered the Parking Industry in 1985 at the local PARCS (Parking Access and Revenue Control Systems) vendor level and expanding his knowledgebase through subsequent career transitions, Dan brings a unique mix of business development experience in marketing both on- and off-street PARCS solutions. He will help clients find solutions using current industry trends as well as setting new trends for others to follow.

Dan is a life-long learner who graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Marketing Management from Thomas College of Business in Waterville, Maine in 1981. More recently, Dan has earned post baccalaureate certificates from the California State University San Bernardino in urban planning, geographic information systems and information systems management. Throughout his career, he has been active in the International Parking Institute (IPI) as a CAPP candidate, as well as supporting various IPI-affiliated organizations from membership in the New York State Parking Association, to service as a vendor representative board member for the Southwest Parking Association, to participation in the CAPP program. In his spare time, Dan enjoys creating and performing alternately-tuned musical compositions for the acoustic finger style guitar.

Walker Parking Consultants is a parking consulting and design firm with offices nationwide specializing in the planning, design and restoration of multi-level parking structures.
